RHCN at 6: How have we done, so far?

Vancouver, Canada, August 14, 2017

Jeffrey Braithwaite,
Erik Hollnagel and
Bob Wears
The fifth Resilient Health Care Net Meeting
Previous and future RHCNs

- Hindsgavl Castle, Denmark 2012
- Hindsgavl Castle, Denmark 2013
- Hindsgavl Castle, Denmark 2014
- Sydney, Australia 2015
- Hindsgavl Castle, Denmark 2016
- Vancouver, Canada 2017
- Hindsgavl Castle, Denmark 2018
- ?
The first book: Resilient Health Care

Hollnagel E, Braithwaite J, Wears RL (eds), (2013)
Book two: The Resilience of Everyday Clinical Work

Wears RL, Hollnagel E, Braithwaite J (eds), (2015)
Book three: Reconciling Work-as-Imagined and Work-as-Done

Braithwaite J Wears RL, Hollnagel E (eds), (2017)
Book four (forthcoming): The field guide

Hollnagel E, Braithwaite J, Wears RL (eds), (2018)
The additional output: From Safety-I to Safety-II: A white paper

Hollnagel E, Wears RL, Braithwaite, J (2015)
All five publications: Core concepts
So, what have we done, so far?
Outputs: Publications

5 books:
- 3 published; 1 in production
- 1 forthcoming
- Published in 2 languages (English, Japanese)
- 65 Chapters
- 100+ Chapter Authors
- 15 countries represented by authors

- 1 editorial in the International Journal for Quality in Health Care
- 1 White Paper published (translated into Portuguese)
AIHI/RHCN Prize

- 1st RHCN Prize: 2016
  Embracing Safety-II

- 2nd RHCN Prize: 2017
  Reconciling work-as-imagined (WAI) and work-as-done (WAD)
Countries represented by Authors

KEY
- editors
- authors
We keep asking

1. Should we enlarge
   - geographically?
   - with a bigger accompanying conference?
     (e.g. Sydney 2015, Vancouver 2017)

2. What book topics should we consider in the future?

3. What other ideas should we entertain to further resilient health care, and our RHCN?